Students and sponsors must not overpay the tuition fees and/or related charges and costs to the University in order to obtain their living costs or circumvent any government regulation or restriction. The University is not able to act as a clearance account, and must abide by Australian anti-money laundering laws. Excess payment amounts will be refunded to the original payee, or retained as credit for future tuition fees. Curtin University is not liable for any loss due to, but not limited to, bank charges or fluctuating exchange rates.

Credit for Recognised Learning (CRL)

If CRL (advanced standing/exemption) is granted, the duration of the course will be reduced. The Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) that you need for your student visa application is based on the course duration after CRL (included in the Offer Letter).

It is a mandatory requirement that all international students on a student visa must have an active visa length OSHC from the date of their arrival in Australia until the date that their visa expires. If you wish to purchase OSHC cover via Curtin, the University can only accept OSHC payment on behalf of Bupa, our preferred provider.

Note: New students using Bupa as their OSHC provider should register for myBupa at mybupa.com.au or download the mybupa app upon arrival in Perth. You will be able to order your OSHC membership card through myBupa.

applicants who apply and to ensure that applicants who accept an offer at the University have the financial capacity to pay for their tuition fees, travel and ongoing expenses associated with living in Australia. The level of information required is dependent upon the country in which you are applying and the course level of your application. Before accepting your offer you will need to meet the Genuine Temporary Entrant condition if outlined on your Letter of Offer. Go to the immigration website for more information on SSVF.

CEPT Admissions <admissions@cept.ac.in>
To: alfiyajbshaikh@gmail.com

28 June 2022 at 15:00

Dear ALFIYA BABULAL SHAIKH,

Application Number: 21222300282

Congratulations!

A warm welcome to CEPT University!

I am pleased to inform you that on the recommendation of Faculty of Architecture you have been provisionally admitted to the two-year Master's in Architectural Tectonics program.

You are requested to secure your admission offer by paying INR 54,450/- as part tuition fee on or before 6 PM, 30th June 2022. Failing to do so, your admission offer will stand cancelled. Request for extension of date for payment of fees will not be entertained under any circumstances. The remaining amount of fees is to be paid as per the Fee schedule mentioned in Annexure 4.

We are very excited to welcome you to be a part of the CEPT community. As you begin your studies, you will be introduced to a host of new policies and procedures. It will be important for you to remember that email is the official method of communication for the University. Through your new CEPT email address (which you will receive after the completion of the registration), you will receive information regarding your student account and any outstanding fee balances, class schedules, registration timelines and important course information from your instructors. It is your responsibility to check your new CEPT email account frequently and respond appropriately.

Please note that at present your admission is provisional. It is subject to verification of necessary documents and successful completion of academic probation as set forth in the enclosed annexure.

CEPT University has established new benchmarks in the domain of built environment education. The University is continually focused on improving its processes to further the pursuit of excellence. In the present uncertain times due to the COVID 19 variants, the University has decided that for Monsoon 2022, a significant portion or the entire semester may be conducted online depending on prevailing COVID situation. This requires the necessary arrangements such as laptop/computer, internet connectivity etc. at your end before the beginning of the semester. The detailed plan for the coming semester will be shared with you soon.

I wish you good luck and much academic success as you begin a new phase in your career with CEPT University!

Warm wishes,

Dear Janhavi Abhijit Rajwade,

I am delighted to let you know that our Graduate Curricular Affairs Committee has determined that you are a fine candidate for our professionally accredited MLA. Congratulations on your acceptance into Penn State Landscape Architecture's MLA Program!

In the attachment to this letter, you will find important information about our program and its unique benefits, including the philosophy, intention, and structure of our MLA curriculum.

And, because our Graduate Committee is particularly enthusiastic about your potential at Penn State, I wish to add more good news:

We are delighted to offer you a teaching or research assistantship for the Fall 2023 and Spring 2024 semesters. This assistantship offer includes full tuition (worth approximately $39,000), a ¼-time stipend (approximately $10,500), and a health insurance subsidy for your 10-hour-per-week contribution to our teaching or research efforts. You will receive information about your specific duties in late May. We expect to fund MLA students for five semesters, contingent upon satisfactory progress in the program: maintaining a 3.5 GPA, timely completion of milestones for your capstone progress, and satisfactory performance in your teaching and research assignments.

There is a lot of important information in the attachment! Please read it very carefully, and contact us with any questions you may have:

Nina Diez Bumgarner, Stuckeman School Graduate Program Coordinator:
ndb2@psu.edu

We look forward to welcoming you into our departmental community!

Sincerely,

Stuart Echols, Ph.D.

Associate Professor and Professor in Charge of Graduate Studies

As a newly appointed graduate assistant, graduate fellow or graduate trainee, you will be receiving an email requesting your action to begin the background check process that is required before you can be appointed to a graduate assistantship, graduate fellowship or graduate traineeship at Penn State. Please take action and complete all requests as soon as possible to ensure that your background check can be processed quickly and that your appointment completion is not delayed. If you do not complete the background check activities, your appointment will not continue to be processed which could cause downstream delays in student health insurance enrollment, stipend payments and tuition coverage. If you have any questions about the process, please contact Nina Bumgarner.

Penn State Landscape Architecture Master of Landscape Architecture Program

Overview

At Penn State Landscape Architecture, we take your education very seriously. We have crafted with great care and intentionality the finest curriculum we can devise, full of exciting challenges and opportunities including:

- A blended BLA/MLA professional curriculum that provides you our best teaching experts in every topic to guide development of your professional knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs).
- A wide array of research opportunities with our faculty, with our Centers, and with faculty across our university, to enrich your capstone research/design experience.
- A range of special opportunities, including a 14-credit Certificate in Geodesign, and Sumer Education Abroad options currently in Barcelona and Tanzania.

All of this awaits you at Penn State Landscape Architecture.

The MLA Curriculum: focus on the Profession and on the Discipline

Grounded in our departmental mission of “environmental and social good,” we find it useful to clarify our degree offerings through reference to two different foci: the Profession of Landscape Architecture and the Discipline of Landscape Architecture, as follows:

- Education focused on the Profession of Landscape Architecture addresses knowledge, skills, and abilities required to effectively practice the profession of Landscape Architecture (BLA, MLA, MPS in Geodesign)
- Education focused on the Discipline of Landscape Architecture philosophically addresses topics in Landscape Architecture by asking questions, questioning assumptions, and expanding thinking about the field of Landscape Architecture (MLA, MSinLA, PhD)

Note that the MLA has both: the curriculum primarily addresses the Profession of Landscape Architecture, providing you all the KSAs needed to practice Landscape Architecture; but the MLA also engages in meaningful exploration—through graduate seminars, colloquia, research, and independent projects—of the Discipline of Landscape Architecture.

Here’s how that works:

- The MLA professional curriculum comprises 47 credits, with core courses (studio, implementation, skills) in a blended undergraduate/graduate (BLA/MLA) context. This blended curriculum for undergraduate and graduate students is an accredited curriculum nationally recognized for its excellent preparation to enter the profession of Landscape Architecture. This model allows undergraduate and graduate students, working together, to benefit from shared ideas; and it provides all students guidance from our top educators in each topical area. Note that, within these blended courses, MLA students are challenged to go beyond the BLA students in breadth/depth of inquiry, with specific means determined by course faculty.
- The MLA disciplinary curriculum comprises 29 credits of coursework that is exclusive to our graduate students, including seminars and colloquia, a research methods course, and the final independent project which combines research with design.

Together, these curricular components in professional and disciplinary education provide our MLA students and excellent overall education.

Dear Shruti,

On behalf of the Dean and Faculty of the Jefferson Kanbar College of Design, Engineering & Commerce at Thomas Jefferson University, it is my pleasure to offer you admission to the MS in Industrial Design for Summer 2022 at the East Falls Campus. Your admission is contingent upon successful completion of your prerequisite agreement stated below.

Based upon your academic and extracurricular achievements, you have been selected to receive the International Institutional Partnership Scholarship in the amount of $5,000 for the 2021-2022 academic year. This scholarship is contingent on full-time enrollment and is renewable provided you are student in good standing in the program. If you enroll in 8-6 credits per semester you will receive half of the total award. Enrollment in less than 6 credits per semester will forfeit the scholarship.

You may accept this offer of admission on your MyJefferson portal at my.jefferson.edu/account by completing the "Accept or Decline Your Offer of Admission" form under the Forms header and submitting a $500 non-refundable deposit. The deposit goes to your first tuition bill. Your deposit must be received by April 29, 2022.

Your enrollment at Jefferson comes at an unprecedented time as the world continues its fight against COVID-19. For students enrolling in on-campus programs, it is the University's intention to continue to offer in-person classes and a residential experience for those students living on campus; in the event that pandemic conditions and/or federal, state, or local mandates require Covid-mitigation measures, the University reserves the right to pivot to a hybrid or online delivery model to protect the health of our University community members. Should that happen, the same tuition rates will apply and remain in effect for the duration of the academic year.

Additionally, as part of our continuing commitment to the health and safety of our University community, Jefferson is requiring proof of an approved COVID-19 vaccination (or a University-approved religious/medical exemption) for all students who attend classes in person and/or participate in clinical or experiential learning. For your reference, the current policy can be found at: <https://www.jefferson.edu/life-at-jefferson/handbooks/health-safety/covid-19-vaccination-policy.html>. Prior to the term of your enrollment, you will be prompted to submit proof of COVID-19 vaccination or to file for a medical or religious exemption.

You are required to notify Jefferson of any legal or disciplinary actions taken against you prior to enrollment. Thomas Jefferson University reserves the right to withdraw your offer of admission in the event that (1) you show a significant drop in academic performance, (2) you fail to graduate (if your program requires a high school diploma or college degree), (3) you misrepresent yourself in the application process or (4) the University learns that you have engaged in behavior prior to enrollment that indicates a serious lack of judgment or integrity.

Prerequisite Requirement/Provisional Acceptance Agreement

Your application has been reviewed and it has been determined that you are missing the following prerequisite requirements/provisions needed for admission to the Kanbar College of Design, Engineering & Commerce.

An offer of admission is extended to you with the stipulation that you complete the below prerequisite requirements. If these requirements are not met, your offer of admission may be rescinded.

Prerequisite Requirement(s)/Provision(s):

- Official transcript from Savitribai Phule Pune University

If you are required to take specific prerequisite coursework (as opposed to foundational courses), courses must:

- Be completed at a regionally accredited institution
- Completed with the above specified grade or better prior to your enrollment at Jefferson
- Completed on the first try; no repeated coursework will be accepted.

Please forward your final official transcript(s) directly to Jefferson's Office of Admissions if you have prerequisite coursework to complete and/or your bachelor's degree is not yet conferred.

Foundation Courses/Academic Advising

The course(s) listed below are foundation courses which must be completed in addition to your core curriculum courses. Your academic advisor will meet with you and discuss your academic plan of study and how these courses fit in with after you accept your offer of admission.

- CADF 500 - CAD I for Industrial Design
- IDF 500 - Design Development Drawing
- IDF 505 - Materials and Process for Manufacturing
- IDF 510 - Ergonomic Studies

You can take the four listed foundational courses during the first year of the graduate program- you do not need to take them first. The program will begin August 15-19, 2022, with INDD 500 Skills and Methods for Industrial Design.

At Jefferson, we are reshaping education for the 21st century. Through boundary-breaking collaboration, research and hands-on, experiential learning, we equip graduates with leadership and analytical skills shaped for an accelerated job market. Dear Shalaka Sancheti

We are delighted to confirm that we are making you an unconditional offer of a place on the above postgraduate programme for the 2021-22 academic year.

Please confirm your acceptance of our offer by signing, scanning and returning the attached Admissions Form within one month of the date of this message (see above). Once we have received your completed Admissions Form, you should pay the tuition fee deposit for your programme. Payment should be made no later than 31 May 2021 and the deposit required for your programme can be found under 2021-22 Tuition Fees on our Admissions pages.

Once your deposit payment has reached us, we will initiate the Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) and Student Visa process if you require a visa to study with us. Further details of the CAS process and visa guidelines can be found on our website.

Later in the admissions cycle, we will inform you of the documents you will need for registration in September. These will be documents that prove you have met the entry requirements for your chosen programme – degree certificates and transcripts and IELTS certification, for example.

Dear Anushka,

Congratulations! You have been recommended for admission to the Master of Science in Urban Planning program for the fall of 2021! Your application will now undergo a final documents review by the UA Graduate College and, assuming everything is in order, you will receive an official notice of admission from them. Our admissions committee has determined that your academic and professional achievements have prepared you well to join our community of scholars, teachers, students, and alumni in the School of Landscape Architecture and Planning. We are excited for you to join us this fall.

We look forward to welcoming you to our program, where you'll learn from national experts and seasoned local planners while gaining hands-on experience through small classes, internships, accessible faculty, an engaged alumni network, and real-world projects. Our graduates get jobs and are making an impact here in Tucson and around the world, as planners and urban changemakers in local government, private-sector firms, and nonprofit organizations. In the next week, we'll be sending out a virtual welcome packet that includes more information about our program and community. Also, please be on the lookout for an invitation to two virtual open houses schedule in March where you can begin getting to know our amazing faculty.

In your first year at the University, the Master of Science in Urban Planning program is happy to offer you the following financial package:

- A Graduate Tuition Scholarship in the amount of $15,000.00, distributed evenly between your first fall and spring terms. To qualify for this award, you must be enrolled for a minimum of nine graduate credit hours, and maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA. Should you receive funds from a Graduate Research Assistantship (RA), or a Graduate Teaching Position (TA), this GTS scholar-ship will not apply or is subject to an adjusted offer.

The approximate value of this initial, comprehensive academic financial package is $15,000.00 for the 2021-2022 academic year. Please note that all financial offers are contingent on the availability of funding at any given time and, in particular, offers of graduate assistantships may become available on a limited basis due to unforeseen budget changes.

Graduate tuition waivers can be used to cover any portion of tuition for courses taken at the main campus of the University of Arizona. It cannot be used to cover courses taken at any satellite campus or for courses offered through Arizona Online. Many courses offered online, as well as some on main campus are offered through Arizona Online, so you should check carefully with your program coordinator about whether the tuition associated with that course is eligible for the tuition waiver. Tuition waivers cannot be used to cover mandatory fees, nor can it be used to cover extra program or course fees that may be imposed on top of regular tuition. The tuition waiver is applied directly to the base graduate tuition charges and has no cash value. Tuition waivers may not count as taxable income. Recipients are encouraged to consult a professional tax advisor as the University of Arizona is not allowed to provide tax advice.

The University of Arizona is a signatory to the Council of Graduate Schools Resolution that no student is required to accept an offer of admission or financial support prior to April 15th of each year (<http://www.cgsnet.org/april-15-resolution>). This resolution has been signed by over 400 other Universities. Since other students may be waiting for a financial offer from us, we request that if you make your decision before that time, you let us know as soon as possible. However, you are not required to do so.

Congratulations once again on your outstanding achievements, which have qualified you for this offer of admission and academic financial support. We hope you will join our program this fall.

Sincerely,

Dear Tejaswini Rane,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been offered admission to the Master of Architecture (M.Arch) program in the School of Architecture (SoA) at Carnegie Mellon University, beginning August 2021. On behalf of the committee, congratulations on being selected from an exceptional pool of highly-qualified applicants. We are excited to welcome you to Pittsburgh, one of the most vibrant cities in this country, and to Carnegie Mellon University, one of the world's preeminent research universities. The SoA prides itself on promoting and inventing the intersection of art and technology, and its M.Arch program is designed to educate students to address the pressing challenges facing the built environment of the future.

Our Master of Architecture is distinctive because of its small size and the personal advising given to every student; the interdisciplinary potential of the curriculum made possible through close connection to the SoA's strong post-professional master's programs in computation, sustainability, public interest design, and urbanism; and our unique position in the City of Pittsburgh, building on its proud industrial heritage toward a dynamic, tech-driven future. Carnegie Mellon University's M.Arch is a NAAB-accredited first professional degree program, and is designated as a STEM-eligible program in "Architectural and Building Sciences/Technology" (CIP code 04.0902).

Based on the strength of your application and demonstrated potential for advancing in your career, we have admitted you to the advanced standing M.Arch program that requires four (4) semesters with a minimum of 180 units of approved coursework at full-time status (minimum 36 units per semester).

Since graduation requirements for Master of Architecture students are based in part on NAAB's professional accreditation standards, your actual curriculum of required core and elective coursework will be determined in part by individual advising and a thorough review of your previous academic and professional work. As indicated in the application, students have the option to request exemption from select required courses by presenting "evidence" of the mastery of course subject matter in previous experiences to satisfy NAAB accreditation criteria. Required technical courses and electives may thus vary for each student, and are subject to the advising and approval of the Track Chair to assure on-time graduation with respect to the four-semester residency requirement.

We are pleased to inform you that the program's admissions committee has decided to offer you a SoA Merit Scholarship of $5,000 to offset the cost of tuition. The cost of full time tuition for SoA's M.Arch program in the 2021-2022 Academic Year (Fall and Spring semesters) will be $39,990. With the Merit Scholarship, your net tuition for 2021-2022 will be $34,990. Tuition rates for the 2022-2023 Academic Year are subject to change and will not be determined until March 2022. Please expect that they will be equal to or greater than the per-semester cost of the 2021-2022 Academic Year rate. Additional support can be obtained through paid Graduate Teaching and Research Assistantships, a limited number of which are available. These are usually arranged once the student arrives on campus and are up to $1,000 per semester.

All incoming Master of Architecture students are required to complete a free online course, Digital Skills Workshops (DSW), this summer to establish a baseline of digital design skills expected at the SoA. Applicants and enrolled students will receive more information as it becomes available.

M.Arch students will have the opportunity to learn from a diverse and innovative group of faculty within the School of Architecture. Your primary faculty advisor will be Professor Kai Gutschow. Do not hesitate to contact your advisor if you have questions regarding academic aspects of the program by email at gutschow@andrew.cmu.edu. Additionally, our Director of Recruitment & Enrollment, Alexis McCune Secosky amccune@andrew.cmu.edu will gladly address administrative questions about the program, the School, and Carnegie Mellon University.

We ask that you respond to this admission offer by visiting <https://commerce.cashnet.com/CMU226> to pay the $500 deposit prior to April 15, 2021. Please email the signed copy of your Decision Form (page 3) to Alexis McCune Secosky amccune@andrew.cmu.edu by April 15, 2021. Enrollment is contingent upon the receipt of all official transcripts for all completed degree programs, receipt of official test score reports, and your ability to obtain a valid visa.

We are proud of the shared efforts of our students, faculty, and staff to ensure a safe and healthy community. While we continue to offer our students a hybrid teaching model to support both remote and in-person learning, we are unable to welcome visitors to our campus at this time. We will be offering a virtual Graduate Program Open House on Monday, March 29 and look forward to meeting you. To learn more and register for an event, visit our website at www.soa.cmu.edu.

As we approach the one-year mark of the onset of the COVID-19 global pandemic, we understand that this has been a particularly challenging time. Hope is on the horizon as COVID-19 vaccines become more widely available throughout the United States and each passing month brings us incrementally closer to a post-pandemic normalcy. We look forward to welcoming you to Pittsburgh, Carnegie Mellon University, and the School of Architecture's Master of Architecture program.

Sincerely,

Omar Khan

Dear Shivani,

Congratulations! We are very happy to inform you that you have been accepted into the Master of Architecture, Advanced Standing degree program for the Fall 2020 term. The IIT College of Architecture is one of the strongest and best known schools of architecture in the world and we look forward to your participation in our pursuit of bold ideas this coming fall.

The Master of Architecture, Advanced Standing program is planned for 2 academic years (4 semesters). Your placement was determined by a review of your portfolio and transcript(s). Students in the Master of Architecture, Advanced Standing program will be expected to complete 66 credit hours.

Please note the following requirements that must be met prior to registration for classes:

- Please submit an official final transcript indicating the receipt of a Master's degree from Savitribai Phule Pune University/University of Pune. This can be submitted electronically via your App Tracker. If your degree is not posted on your final transcript both a final transcript and an official copy of your degree certificate will be required.
- Before we can finalize your admission and issue you a SEVIS I-20 to receive a student visa, you must submit a Financial Affidavit of Support covering the amount of the first year of study. The 2020-21 Financial Affidavit of Support form and submission instructions will be available on your AppTracker shortly. The 2020-21 Financial Affidavit of Support form will either need to have section 3 completed by a bank official with the bank's official stamp/seal, or you will need to send an official bank statement with all information listed in English. If the funds being used are not in an account under your name the account holder must complete section 2 of the Financial Affidavit of Support form. Please make sure your Financial Affidavit of Support form is uploaded into the correct section to be sure the process is not delayed.
- We are pleased to announce that all IIT Architecture degree programs have recently been approved as a STEM designated field of study. This will allow international students to apply for a full three years of OPT (Optional Practical Training) in the United States after graduation.

In order to secure your position for the Fall 2020 term submit your Intent to Enroll form via your App Tracker and Deposit via your myIIT portal no later than May 15, 2020. The deposit is a $300 non-refundable down payment that will go towards your first semester tuition; this is not an additional fee. Your Campus-Wide ID (CWID) is A20468850.

Please feel free to contact Jaucinta Burt at burtjau@iit.edu with questions regarding admissions or Professor Martin Felsen, Director of the Master of Architecture Program, at felsen@iit.edu with any questions regarding the program or curriculum.

Your application materials were impressive and we anticipate your substantial contributions to the IIT College of Architecture and to the future of the built environment. Again, we extend our congratulations to you and look forward to having you as part of our renowned College this coming fall.

Sincerely,

Reed Kroloff, Dean

Dear Surbhi Ghodke,

I am pleased to inform you that the Admissions Committee has voted to admit you to the 2-year Master of Architecture (M.Arch) program for the Fall 2020 semester. An additional letter formalizing the admissions decision will be coming soon from the university Graduate School, but I want to be the first to welcome you to the University of Utah and to the School of Architecture. Congratulations!

In addition to admitting you to the M.Arch program, I would like to offer you $4050 College of Architecture & Planning Scholarship. For the fall semester. You will be eligible to apply for additional scholarships, teaching assistantships, and graduate assistantships for the 2021-22 academic year upon demonstration of satisfactory performance. In addition, The University requires international students to purchase health insurance for each semester that they are here. Your offer includes payment of this insurance for the 2020 – 21 academic year. For the 2019 – 20 school year, the total value of the insurance was $1,908.00.

You also qualify for a 50% waiver of the university's base tuition and fees through a Tuition Benefit Program for the fall semester. The annual estimated value of the tuition waiver is over $5,000 for in-state students and more than $30,000 for non-resident students. Please read through the information about the Tuition Benefit Program on the Graduate School's website (<http://gradschool.utah.edu/tbp/tuition-benefit-program-guidelines/>).¹

We will soon be sending you additional information about the M.Arch program and some activities scheduled for incoming students. Primary among these is The Graduate Experience, scheduled for Friday, March 27, 2020. The Graduate Experience is a day-long event designed for all students admitted to graduate study in the College of Architecture + Planning. The purpose of the event is to give you an opportunity to get to know us and our programs more completely. Scheduled activities for the day include a variety of info sessions, tours, firm visits, a career fair, and discussions with faculty, current students, and alumni. For a flavor of what's in store, visit our page from 2019: http://www.cap.utah.edu/event/graduate_experience/. We'll be updating that soon with this year's schedule and will let you know once it's ready.

The School of Architecture works to promote well-being and cultural resilience in our society and environment through research, community engagement, and educational experiences. In the coming weeks, you will receive an official letter from our School with information about courses, relevant University offices, and special programs that are part of our College. In the meantime, I encourage you to peruse our department website (<http://soa.cap.utah.edu/>) to learn more about the program's requirements, specializations, research and community engagement opportunities such as: Design Build Bluff, Design Build SLC, and the Puerto Rico Resiliency Lab.

Once you receive your official letter of acceptance from the Admissions Office, please log in to the ApplyYourself system and confirm your intent to enroll for classes next fall (https://app.applyyourself.com/AYApplicantLogin/fl_ApplicantLogin.asp?id=utahgrad). The deadline to accept the admissions and funding offer is April 15, 2020. Also, please verify your residency classification for tuition purposes. Graduate students who begin their program as non-residents are only able to reclassify as residents after meeting the requirements specified for graduate students. See admissions.utah.edu/residency for more information. The residency office can be reached at residency@utah.edu, 801-581-8761 (option #5).

I know going to graduate school is a major decision. Please feel free to contact me, at henry@arch.utah.edu or Linda Bastyr, School of Architecture Administrative Officer, at bastyr@arch.utah.edu or (801) 585-5354 if you have any questions. Linda is also your best contact for questions about the mechanics of the admissions process.

In the meantime, welcome to Utah. We can't wait for you to join us!

Sincerely,

Lisa C. Henry
Interim Chair and Associate Professor

ⁱ Note that the tuition waiver does not cover "differential tuition," which is currently $643.35 plus $183.17 for each credit hour. Full-time M.Arch students enroll in 12 to 15 credit hours per semester. Under tuition rates for 2019-2020, a student taking 15 credits would have differential tuition costs of $3,390.90 per semester. We anticipate that rates for 2020-21, which will be published this summer, will be higher. For more information about the base tuition, differential tuition, and fees, go to <https://fbs.admin.utah.edu/income/tuition/college-of-architecture-planning/#arch>. Additionally, the university estimates room and board costs for students living off campus to be $11,862, plus $4,570 for books/supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses. Again, these estimates are for 2019-20 and will probably be somewhat higher in 2020-21.

Important information from the International Office

a) Financial requirements for a visa

Please inform yourself in advance about the financial conditions for a study visit in Germany. The German Embassy requires proof of a blocked account at Deutsche Bank. Another provider is the online bank Fintiba.

For a visa you have to prove that you have 934,00 EUR per month for your living expenses. Students from EU countries must also provide this financial proof.

b) Health insurance

All students in Germany are obligated to have health insurance. All applicants therefore need to contact a German public health insurance provider.

Please note: German health insurance coverage usually starts on the first day of the semester – 1 September (winter semester) or 1 March (summer semester). Please make sure that you have health insurance that covers you for the time between your arrival in Germany and the beginning of the semester.

For more information on health insurance in Germany:

c) Accommodation

Please remember to book a room in our dorm in time. The online form can be found here:

Select the dorm in Neubrandenburg, Brodaer Str. 4. After a confirmation of receipt, Ms. Kaiser from the residence administration will ask for this letter of enrolment (via scan) and then send you an offer, which you absolutely must answer.

If our dormitories are occupied, you will find more options for the search of a flat:

Samruddhi Purohit

Applicant, Rutgers Edward J. Bloustein School
Urban Planning Masters Program

Dear Samruddhi:

It is a pleasure to inform you that your application has been accepted to our Master of City and Regional Planning (MCRP) program starting in the fall 2024 semester. Congratulations! We are very excited about having you join us for graduate study. Your academic accomplishments coupled with the interests you expressed in your application mark you as an excellent fit with our program.

We sincerely hope you will choose to join the Bloustein School. The faculty of the Urban Planning and Policy Development Program conduct research and teach across the full range of planning issues facing localities, states and the nation. Concentrations in the program reflect that diversity including environmental, physical planning and design, housing, real estate, regional and international development, informatics, transportation and urban/community development.

Our state-of-the-art $42 million school is second to none in policy and planning programs around the country. There are two computer laboratories that together house 75 high-speed computer workstations, which run some of the latest software packages available for geoprocessing, statistics, big data analytics, and graphic design. More recently, we have invested over $350,000 in renovations, adding an additional 25 work stations to the environment and creating five “smart classrooms” each of which has overhead projectors and dedicated computers for student projects and presentations. We also provide advanced printing capabilities and a high speed wireless network in the building that provides mobile connectivity in all of our student lounge spaces and classrooms. Our facilities are open to our graduate students twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

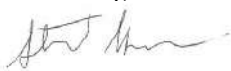

You should receive in the near future, from the Office of Graduate and Professional Admissions at Rutgers, a certificate of admission formalizing your admission to our program. In the coming weeks we will be assessing admitted student eligibility for financial support in the form of fellowships, scholarships and tuition waivers. We will notify you should you qualify via email at the address you provided us on your application.

If you are ready to make an admissions decision on your program at the Bloustein School, log in to your admissions portal: <https://rutgers.my.site.com/ApplicantPortal/AppPortalCustom>.

Finally, on Wednesday, March 27th and Thursday, March 28th, the school will be hosting its annual Graduate Admitted Student Open House. We welcome you to join us for the virtual or in-person event you wish to attend, for a number of interesting presentations and programs. To find out more and to RSVP, please visit the website.

We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Stuart Shapiro
