Objective of this Event:

- Highlighting varied career paths available to B.Arch graduates.
- Providing insights into emerging fields in architecture and allied disciplines.
- Guiding students on how to prepare for higher studies, professional practice, and entrepreneurial ventures.
- Addressing queries related to industry trends, skill development, and job readiness.

Summary of the event (150-200 words):

B.N. College of Architecture (BNCA) organized an engaging and insightful seminar for the final-year Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch) students titled "Avenues after B.Arch". The event aimed to equip students with a comprehensive understanding of the diverse career opportunities available after completing their architectural education.

Event Overview

Welcome Address: The event began with a welcome speech by Prof. Mahesh Bangad, who emphasized the importance of informed decision-making for career planning.

Keynote Speaker: The seminar was led by our Career Counselling Head, Prof. Ar. Mahesh Bangad, known for his expertise in architecture and academia. The speaker shared their career journey, providing real-world examples of the various roles an architect can assume.

Discussion Topics:

The seminar covered a range of topics, including:

- 1. Professional Practice: Key steps to establishing a career as an architect, with insights into licensing processes, starting independent practice, and working in architectural firms.
- 2. Higher Education Opportunities:
 - Master's programs in architecture, urban design, environmental planning, and related disciplines.
 - Scholarships and application processes for institutions in India and abroad.
- 3. Emerging Career Avenues:
 - Interdisciplinary roles in fields like sustainability, digital architecture, construction management, and design technology.
 - Roles in the creative industry, such as interior design, set design, and product design.
- 4. Non-Traditional Careers: Opportunities in research, writing, teaching, policymaking, and conservation architecture.
- 5. Skill Development:
 - Importance of developing soft skills, software proficiency (e.g., BIM, parametric tools), and presentation techniques.
 - Networking and maintaining an updated portfolio.
- 6. Interactive Q&A Session:
 - Students actively participated in the Q&A session, seeking advice on career dilemmas, transitioning to new domains, and preparing for industry challenges.

Feedback and Takeaways

The seminar provided:

- Clarity and Direction: Students gained a clearer understanding of potential career paths and how to navigate them.
- Inspiration and Motivation: The speaker's journey inspired students to think beyond conventional career roles and explore their passions.
- Practical Guidance: Actionable steps for skill enhancement, further studies, and professional growth.

Conclusion

The seminar on "Avenues after B.Arch" was a great success, leaving a lasting impression on the final-year students. It not only broadened their horizons but also equipped them with valuable tools and strategies to make informed career decisions.

Event / Activity title: 'Need to Upskill' Seminar for B.Arch Students

Date & Time: 22nd June 2020, 09.00am

Venue: BNCA Auditorium

Faculty In-charge: Prof. Mahesh Bangad

Faculty Co-ordinator: Prof. Mahesh Bangad

Students' In-charge: NA

NAAC Criteria (if any): 5 (Five)

Guest Speakers: NA

Chief Guest (if any): NA

Objective of this Event:

1. Highlighting varied career paths available to B.Arch graduates.
2. Providing insights into emerging fields in architecture and allied disciplines.
3. Guiding students on how to prepare for higher studies, professional practice, and entrepreneurial ventures.
4. Addressing queries related to industry trends, skill development, and job readiness.

Summary of the event (150-200 words):

B.N. College of Architecture (BNCA) organized an engaging and insightful seminar for the final-year Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch) students titled "Avenues after B.Arch". The event aimed to equip students with a comprehensive understanding of the diverse career opportunities available after completing their architectural education.

Event Overview

Keynote Speaker: The seminar was led by our counselling head Prof. Mahesh Bangad, known for his expertise in architecture and academia. The speaker shared their career journey, providing real-world examples of the various roles an architect can assume.

Discussion Topics:

The seminar covered a range of topics, including:

7. Professional Practice: Key steps to establishing a career as an architect, with insights into licensing processes, starting independent practice, and working in architectural firms.
8. Higher Education Opportunities:

MKSSS's Dr. Bhanuben Nanavati College of Architecture for Women, Pune

- Master's programs in architecture, urban design, environmental planning, and related disciplines.
- Scholarships and application processes for institutions in India and abroad.

9. Emerging Career Avenues:

- Interdisciplinary roles in fields like sustainability, digital architecture, construction management, and design technology.
- Roles in the creative industry, such as interior design, set design, and product design.

10. Non-Traditional Careers: Opportunities in research, writing, teaching, policymaking, and conservation architecture.

11. Skill Development:

- Importance of developing soft skills, software proficiency (e.g., BIM, parametric tools), and presentation techniques.
- Networking and maintaining an updated portfolio.

12. Interactive Q&A Session:

- Students actively participated in the Q&A session, seeking advice on career dilemmas, transitioning to new domains, and preparing for industry challenges.

Feedback and Takeaways

The seminar provided:

- Clarity and Direction: Students gained a clearer understanding of potential career paths and how to navigate them.
- Inspiration and Motivation: The speaker's journey inspired students to think beyond conventional career roles and explore their passions.
- Practical Guidance: Actionable steps for skill enhancement, further studies, and professional growth.

Conclusion: The seminar on "Avenues after B.Arch" was a great success, leaving a lasting impression on the final-year students. It not only broadened their horizons but also equipped them with valuable tools and strategies to make informed career decisions.

2. Session Topics:

- Overview of Postgraduate Options:
 - Master's programs in architecture (M.Arch) with specializations such as:

- Urban Design
 - Landscape Architecture
 - Heritage Conservation
 - Environmental and Sustainable Design
 - Computational Design and Parametric Architecture
 - Interdisciplinary fields such as Construction Management, Real Estate Development, and Design Research.
 - Global Education Opportunities:
 - Notable institutions in India and abroad.
 - Application requirements, including SOPs, portfolios, and recommendation letters.
 - Standardized tests like GRE, TOEFL, and IELTS.
 - Scholarships and Funding:
 - Information on government and private scholarships.
 - Guidance on drafting strong applications for financial aid.
3. Career Implications of Higher Education: Enhancing expertise and employability. Opportunities in academia, research, and niche professional roles. Expanding networks and exposure to global architectural practices.
 4. Interactive Q&A Session: Students raised questions about selecting the right specialization, balancing work and study, and preparing compelling portfolios. The speaker provided personalized advice, encouraging students to align their choices with their passions and career goals.
 5. Resource Distribution: A curated list of universities, sample SOP templates, and links to scholarship databases was shared with the students for reference.

Key Takeaways

- Comprehensive understanding of postgraduate opportunities in architecture.
- Awareness of the preparation and documentation required for successful applications.
- Motivation to explore advanced studies and interdisciplinary career paths.
- Practical tips for enhancing portfolios and drafting impactful application materials.

Feedback and Reception

The seminar was well-received by students and faculty alike. Many students expressed their appreciation for the clarity of information and actionable guidance provided during the session. The seminar inspired attendees to consider higher education as a pathway to personal and professional growth.

Conclusion
